

Arnoud De Meyer
Professor Emeritus
Singapore Management University

Arnoud De Meyer is a global academic leader with more than 35 years of experience in top international academic institutions in Europe and Asia. Until December 2018, he served as President of Singapore Management University (SMU). Before joining SMU, Arnoud De Meyer was from 2006 until 2010 Director (Dean) of the Judge Business School at the University of Cambridge (United Kingdom) and Professorial Fellow at Jesus College. From 1983 until 2006, he was a faculty member at INSEAD and assumed between 1990 and 2006 several management positions, among others that of founding dean of INSEAD's Asia campus in Singapore.

Arnoud De Meyer has been an Independent Director of more than 20 companies and institutions in Belgium, France, the UK, Singapore and Australia. Currently he is Independent Director of Viva Energy Pty Ltd (Australia), where he is member of the remuneration committee and chair of the investment committee, and an independent director of the Banyan Tree Group. He is also the Chair of the Temasek sponsored "Stewardship Asia Centre" (Singapore), director of INSEAD (France and Singapore), and a member of the University Grants Committee (Hong Kong).

He is an internationally recognised researcher in the areas of R&D and Innovation Management, Manufacturing Strategy and International Management. He published more than 100 academic articles and 12 books. His two most recent co-authored books are Ecosystem Edge: Sustaining Competitiveness in the Face of Disruption, (with Peter J. Williamson), published with Stanford Business Press, and Building Excellence in Higher Education: Singapore's Experience, (with Jovina Ang), published with Routledge.